

DRESS CODE • VIVARIUM NOVUM ACADEMY

Upper garments

- No sleeveless garments (tank tops etc).
- Shirts (not T-shirts) tucked inside trousers.

Lower garments

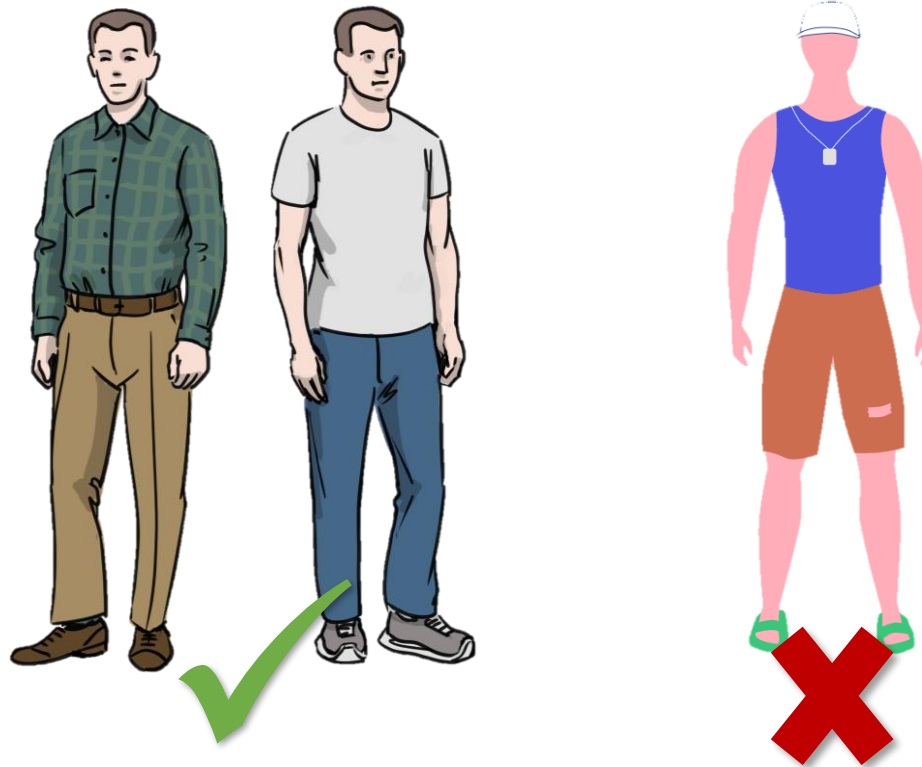

- Avoid trousers that sag below your belt line.
- Avoid shorts.

Shoes

- No sandals, slippers or other open-toed shoes in public areas.
- Do not walk barefoot (neither inside bedrooms).

Haircut and grooming

- Avoid too long or too short haircut.
- Avoid dyeing hair.
- Avoid uneven haircut (e.g. razed at sides).
- Clean-shaven face.

The Academy is not a private house. It is a college, a workplace and a monument of the Italian estate, open for the public. Therefore, we ask people staying on campus to wear appropriate clothing that allows them to be comfortable while still maintaining a neat appearance, far from being either sloppy or extravagant.

- No piercings.
- No tattoos.
- No jewelry.
- Avoid headwear (including hoods) and sunglasses indoors.
- No headphones in common areas.

- Avoid clothing that displays messages obscene or promoting drugs, alcohol, violence, music bands or political parties.
- Avoid ripped or torn garments.
- Sport clothes (e.g. sweatpants) are not appropriate in everyday life.

Accessories

Note

DRESS CODE • VIVARIUM NOVUM ACADEMY

Upper garments

- Straps should be at least 3 finger wide (avoid spaghetti straps).
- Must cover shoulder to shoulder.

The Academy is not a private house. It is a college, a workplace and a monument of the Italian estate, open for the public. Therefore, we ask people staying on campus to wear appropriate clothing that allows them to be comfortable while still maintaining a neat appearance, far from being either sloppy or extravagant.

Lower garments

- Avoid leggings without appropriate accompanying legwear.
- Avoid clothing that is too short (eg. mini-skirts and shorts).
- Skirts should sag not above knees (without long split).
- Pants should be ankle-length.

Shoes

- No flip-flops and house slippers in public areas.
- Do not walk barefoot (neither inside bedrooms).

- Avoid extravagant haircut (e.g. razed, vividly coloured etc.) and excessive makeup.

Haircut and grooming

- No piercings.
- Earrings are limited to 1 per ear and must be located on the earlobe.
- No jewelry (necklaces, bracelets etc).
- No tattoos.
- Avoid headwear (including hoods) and sunglasses indoors.
- No headphones in common areas.

Accessories

- Avoid clothing that displays obscene messages or promoting drugs, alcohol, violence, music bands or political parties.
- Avoid too revealing clothing (skin-tight, transparent or exposing shoulders, back, ribcage, cleavage, stomach, underwears etc).
- Avoid ripped or torn garments.
- Sport clothes (e.g. sweatpants) are not appropriate in everyday life.

Note